

THE HOUSE WE HAVE FOUND

It is a house built in the 70s with 5 hectares of land, located in Maremma, on the hills around Suvereto (Tuscany), 10 km from the sea. It offers a good potential for collective living and for creating individual spaces: a big living room, a kitchen that opens from the outside, 4 bedrooms, a big workshop area, lots of space outside that can be used for camping, training, installing houses on wheels, caravans, yurts... Casa Fronda Viola a new house

Being feminists and lesbians we understand the importance of having a physical place for us. Our history is full of women lands and separatist places, both in the city and the countryside.

All of us come across them, we need them and care for them, we have chosen them as places of life. Casa Fronda Viola makes part of this herstory

Casa Fronda Viola is a place open for every woman. An adventure which needs everyone's support to be able to continue.
